

RACE MANAGEMENT COURSE

27 – 28 February 2010

27 Feb: 2.00pm – 6.00pm | 28 Feb: 9.00am – 5.00pm

National Sailing Centre | Price: $53.50

This course is suitable for those who aspire to be Race Officers.

It is preferable (though not necessary) for participants to have some sailing / racing experience and possess the PPCDL (Powered Pleasure Craft Driving Licence).

Application forms can be found online at www.sailing.org.sg - closing date: 18 February 2010.

The following topics will be covered:

Drafting Notice of Race & Sailing Instructions

Mark laying

Start lines, starting procedures, recalls
& re-starts

Race management aids

Race control after start

Abandoning & shortening races

Changing next leg of the course

Marks missing & mark replacement

Finish line & recording finishers

Rule 42 signals

Post race tasks & evaluation

Results management

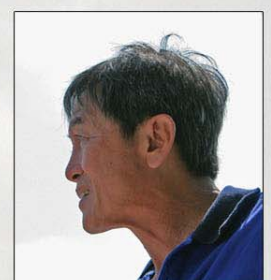

Attending redress hearings

Race management & the rules

Case studies

Safety management

The course will be conducted by ISAF International Race Officer and Judge Lock Hong Kit (right) and National Race Officer
Richard Cai.

SingaporeSailing